Motorrad Grand Prix Deutschland: Nothing beats being there!

Pole Position Travel invites you to Motorrad Grand Prix Deutschland

Every year after Sachsenring we ask ourselves: Why don't more foreigners make it here? The Germans keep this gem of an event a state secret - one we would like to share with you! Always easy-going, great fun, great facilities, great action! Also a good riding destination and a very good value for money.

Formerly a road circuit; this is the home to the true moto-heads in Germany. It is a little-known fact that the 2 stroke motorcycle engine was invented near here! Coinciding with the fall of the Iron Curtain around 1990, the current 3.671 km circuit was built in 1996 and retains little semblance of the old track, with MotoGP first arriving here in 1998. Low-gear, paint-swapping corners now dominate much of the track, allowing the pent-up power of the machines to be released only after the final turns onto the two straights in the final section. Although shorter than the main straight, the back downhill straight is the fastest point on the track leading into the sweeping Sachsen turn which always has a lot of action - hence why we recommend the stands 12,13 and the catered 14; however there is good viewing all over the circuit.

After Brno, this is the event we have been coming to the longest - since 2004! It is also one of the largest events - Sunday crowds top well over 100,000; and the circuit handles the crowd size beautifully with little traffic.

Our opening party here is becoming a real fixture on our MotoGP calendar: at the beautiful Ratskeller, with super food and drink, we always get an 'insider' to come and share beers and stories from the world of MotoGP. In 2008 our speaker was a mechanic from Pramac Ducati; 2009 was motogp insider David Emmet giving a potted history of Sachsenring, In 2010 we had a great talk from a British sidecar team, a real inside view to this crazy sport! We will have an equally fascinating 'insider' talk in 2011 - just watch out for those 11 beers! It is also an event where we often get special guests dropping in, such as the rider from Team Germany (Jakub Kornfiel, also 2009 Red Bull Rookies world champion) and in 2009 was WSBK SuperSport championship runner up Eugene Laverty.

This is also a great event to go VIP - the pit roof suit is at the highest point on the circuit so you get great views; and service road tours are INCLUDED, giving you a rare chance to see the bikes up close in action!

Sachsenring is one of the best value MotoGPs of the tournament; as a quick glance at our packages will show. Our classic package puts you in a 3* hotel in the centre of Chemnitz; ready for all the town action. It is also great for Single accommodation. Our superior package is in the top hotel in the town, the 4* Penta, also base to several teams. In both cases we take you to the track and back on Sat/Sun (optionally on Fri) and to our Fri opening reception. Saturday evening for those keen, you can stay at the track and enjoy the free rock concert, and we will take you home later (small additional cost); or come along with staff for a visit to a local restaurant. We also do our famous 'MotoGP Night' dinner inside the MotoGP paddock on Saturday night.

Sunday we have an optional 'winding down' dinner which usually ends up in an informal pub tour of the town! Of course our staff are on hand at all times to ensure you have a great time!

German Grand Prix VIP Village

For the ultimate experience of MotoGP world wide, there is no substitute for the official VIP Village. Sachsenring is one of the biggest events of the tournament - it is such a relief to enter its sanctuary! Situated right on top of the pit lane, with great views of the start grid, its elevated position also gives you views to the back of the track. Bring field glasses for this one! With pit lane walks, paddock tours, service road tours, luxury catering, open bar, free programme, race reports, closed circuit TVs, superb viewing, access to most of the rest of the track, and perhaps best of all the camaraderie of fellow VIP moto fans; you'll understand why our customers say "once you've gone VIP there is no going back!" German MotoGP tickets

Sachsenring is about the shortest, most technical circuit of the year, with riders fighting hard for every millimetre. You can see why there is action at all points of the circuit. With its hilly, compact terrain there are some brilliant sight-lines. The back corner at T13 is always a lively spot; catching the bikes on the downhill big left sweeper. Our favourite stand has become T14 -- less crowded with great views in two directions, a TV screen and - heaven - a private beer garden (the ticket price includes food and drink on Sunday!). Finally if you like a start view and join the fans who go wild when Rossi takes it, choose T1. As the best grandstanded circuit of the tournament, this is not one to go standing... And on a trivial note, some of the best food concessions are here - especially if you like bratwurst und bier that is (and we do!). Tickets are in electronic format so are delivered by email around 1 month before the event.
