

Round 9: 15 July 2012

Grand Premio D'Italia: Nothing beats being there!

Pole Position Travel invites you to
Gran Premio D'Italia 2012

The MotoGP at Mugello is one of the blue ribbon events on the MotoGP calendar and a must-see for any aficionado. The twisty, hilly Tuscan circuit is attended by the most enthusiastic MotoGP fans on the planet – the Italians! At the end of the race the track is opened and fans converge in their thousands in front of the podium – usually to watch hero Valentino Rossi standing in the centre. Speaking of whom - the Doctor made it seven in a row here; we finally saw his streak ended in 2009 by the 'young pretender' Casey Stoner, but happily for his fans Rossi still made the podium. 2010 was made historic by Rossi's first major career injury! His 2011 season is best not mentioned; everyone is pinning their hopes on this one! This will be the Italian on the Italian Bike at the Italian GP.

Spectator viewing at Mugello is very good, although crowded in some sections. For this reason a Grandstand seat is strongly recommended – the Poggio Secco is our favourite with long panoramic views over the curve of the same name, but if you want to catch the awesome straight (about the fastest in MotoGP), start grid and the mad podium rush, opt for the covered Centrale. For our money however it is the new Biondetti stand that has the best overall experience with views in many directions! All have TV screens.

But when only the best will do, we offer our private Pole Position Club VIP on the pit roof featuring full catering in a terrace overlooking the main straight and pits; CCTV, hostesses pit-lane walks and paddock tours. Guests in the past have included British rider Danny Webb, BBC commentator Steve Parrish, Marco Simoncelli, Cal Crutchlow, and the legendary Giacomo Agostini. Saturday night we are offering an incredible experience of the Paddock Saturday night, with dinner with a MotoGP team!

But if we are talking parties, then Mugello wins the gold medal! Friday we repair to a countryside castle jointly with LCR Honda, Playboy bunnies and many riders and team members for an unforgettable reception, dinner and dancing! Included with ALL packages, and only otherwise available to our VIP customers.

We love Florence and base our packages there. Our Classic package in a well-loved 3* hotel is superb value for money. A great biking destination, our hotels all offer secure bike parking. Our Superior is in a 4* Villa hotel in a Florentine suburb. Both packages feature optional Friday track transfers, Friday opening party, Sat/Sun transfers. We also offer our Sunday Florentine evening winding-down dinner (optional extra) which is always a great way to end the weekend... NEW this year, we offer a City Package in the heart of Florence. Like the Classic, but in an awesome location, this is for Florence lovers!

Saving the best for last, our top package is the sublime Deluxe Package in a stunning 15th century Palazzo in the heart of old Florence. With only 11 rooms, this is a very exclusive package. Join us Thursday for a bottle of vintage wine in the impossibly secluded garden in the midst of the old city of Florence, a VIP reception on Friday is followed by our opening party; Saturday we take you to the track in our VIP shuttle; and on Sunday you can bypass the worst traffic in MotoGP in our optional helicopter transfers! Truly the creme de la creme!

Mugello MotoGP Tickets

Always the race with the biggest 'buzz' of the tournament, probably because the Italians are such moto fanatics! This event is likely to sell out this year, book early! All grandstands have TV view, also visible from parts of the standing areas. However, be warned: this event gets crowded like no other, we strongly recommend grandstands if you don't want to fight for your spots! Centrale is excellent to view the start/finish and the podium (always a mad rush after Rossi wins!) and it is covered (Silver is the top half of the grandstand and Bronze is the bottom). Materassi has a decent view, but for your money the Poggio Secco is the top grandstand with wide panoramic views and usually the Valentino Rossi fan club to help cheer! As always we are there - our Italian-speaking team helps keep us out of trouble!

Florentine Evening (Sunday)

Join us in celebration of another great Italian GP weekend with our winding down dinner at a classic trattoria. This is a very traditional Florentine family restaurant, hugely popular with locals. Staff don't speak a word of English - we love it! We will sample some of the Tuscan wines followed by a classic Tuscan meal (features a lot of meat dishes, but vegetarians will be catered for, please let us know). You are more than welcome to join us after dinner as we continue to enjoy the local wines, grappa (and they have a surprisingly good selection of malt whisky!). The restaurant is walking distance to the Superior package hotel; we will organise transport for customers at other locations. Price includes wine tasting, table wine/beer/soft drinks, meal and transport there. Post-prandial drinks are on usual basis! A free grappa to anyone who catches the MotoGP reference in the trattoria's name!

Mugello Chianti Excursion (Monday)

After Valentino Rossi and the Roman Empire, Italy is most famous for its wonderful liquid product - vino! And given that you are already there, we offer a brilliant way to extend the euphoria of the hottest MotoGP on the planet with a visit to the coolest countryside in Europe. Nestled deep in the Tuscan hills, we take you a mountain-top villa, dating from Etruscan times, in the heart of Chianti country for 2 nights of wine, culture, music and sun! On Monday, we depart from Florence, taking the long way through the hills, stopping for lunch at an impossibly charming cafe in one of those Italian villages that looks about the same as it did under the Caesars. We then make our way to the Villa, where you check in and have a chance to unwind. Dinner at the villa starts with a welcome glass or two of the local stuff, and then a proper tasting of the real Chianti wines by a first class sommelier and a Tuscan feast. Tuesday we do a special excursion to visit the incredible town of Sienna, for an all-day adventure including walking tour, lunch and dinner, returning to our Villa for a few nightcaps. Wednesday after a very leisurely breakfast we drag you reluctantly away back to Florence (or you can extend your stay)
