Australian Grand Prix: Nothing beats being there!

POLEPOSITIONTRAVEL

Pole Position Travel invites you to
Australian Grand Prix 2012

Any serious MotoGP fan must make the pilgrimage to Phillip Island at least once... The Australian bike fans have so far to go to hit any other event, by the time the Australian Grand Prix rolls around their appetites are so whetted that you can cut the atmosphere with a carving knife. The circuit is simply breathtaking -- definitely one that you want to take a stroll around, with the back curves (near Bass Strait and Siberia) competing with the spectacular ocean bluffs for your attention. There is action all over the track: it's a great viewing circuit. Expect a bit of rain (who will forget the 2006 traffic jam in the pits as the 'hot swap' rule was used for the first time?) grandstand and general admission customers may buy 'weather shelter' tickets just in case...

They have been racing bikes here since 1931, and the Aussies are certifiably mad about the sport! And of course their man Casey Stoner will no doubt be in contention for the championship so you can expect demand to be very high! Phillip Island itself is rather cool, and when they aren't running motorcycle races, is a great tourist destination. Add a day or two to check out the Koala bear preserve, the impossibly charming Penguin parade, or simply hit the beach.

We have a great package in the best accommodation around -- the lovely 4* Silverwater Resort and winery, just 2km from the Island. This is a 4 night dinner, bed and breakfast package with a completely full schedule to ensure you eek the most from the weekend! Suitable for VIPs (we have some lovely 1 bedroom suites) and ordinary grandstand packages. We have an opening welcome Thursday, with drinks and a hop into town for dinner. Friday we will have food, drink and a suitable special guest from the paddock. On Saturday there is a very special party with an Aussie legend guest (last year: Wayne Gardner) (you can join at an additional cost). Sunday we do a winding down dinner and a sampling of the estate's local vintages... This is a true VIP package - with low numbers and one of our top experts to look after you (about 12 people per staff member!)

We also offer a new BUDGET package at a hotel about 60 minutes from the track - grand way to sleep comfortably, have our guide on hand and laugh all weekend with fellow fans!

At the track we can provide ordinary grandstand or general admission tickets, but really sleep in a tent if you must and plunk down for the official VIP Village. This is on top of the pit roof in the Gold suites, and is VERY exclusive - free flowing food and drink, OPEN ACCESS to the paddock, and our expert guide around to make introductions and help with all matters. This is UNAVAILABLE elsewhere! Expect some special guests to drop in. THIS WILL SELL OUT EARLY! (This is not the circuit Platinum VIP Village. The ordinary circuit hospitality does not grant access to the paddock).

This really is a 'dream weekend'.

Australian MotoGP Tickets

Phillip Island circuit is one of the most beautiful circuits in MotoGP. All tickets permit you access to all general admission areas, so you are highly recommended to spend at least one day wandering the track. Grandstand tickets are all reserved seats, so you will have a definite place to watch from. All stands are good - the most popular is Siberia. Lukey Heights has long, panoramic views; Bass strait puts you a bit closer on a scenic part of the track. Opt for Gardner straight if you want to see the start grid & podium and be right on hand for the track invasion. There is a new COVERED section of Gardner straight which might be useful if the notorious Phillip Island weather strikes! Speaking of which, you can add a 'GP Hub' to any ticket which grants you access to a Turn 1 pavilion with private bar - great retreat if the weather does turn sour! All stands have large TV views, but the TVs are pretty small - we recommend binoculars. We suggest you purchase a personal radio at the track broadcasting the commentary - these are INCLUDED if you purchase your tickets with one of our packages.
